

Aberdeen Soccer Association/Hub City Soccer Club

ASSOCIATION BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

MEMBERSHIP

1. MEMBERSHIP. Individual players, coaches, referees, and administrators participating in the Association are active members. Active members shall have the right to participate in all activities of the Association.

2. DISCONTINUATION OF MEMBERSHIP. Members whose activities damage the interests of the Association, or which attempt to circumvent a decision rendered by the Association shall be subject to disciplinary action by the Association. The Association shall have the power to discharge a member or take such disciplinary action as it deems necessary. Such action shall require a two-thirds majority vote of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE II

ORGANIZATION

1. EXECUTIVE BOARD. The Executive Board shall consist of the executive officers of the Association. These executive officers are the: 1) President, 2) Vice-President, 3) 1st Vice-President, 4) Secretary, 5) Treasurer, 6) Communications Director, 7) Equipment Manager, 8) Fundraising Director, 9) Sponsorship Director, 10) Referee Administrator
2. All the executive officers, except the Referee Administrator, will be elected at the AGM in the manner provided in these by-laws. The Referee Administrator will be appointed by the Executive Board.
3. COMMISSION.
 - a) COMMISSION MEMBERS: The Commission shall consist of any league commissioners from the various leagues, interim members of the Commission, and the various other Directors, Administrators and Managers who are not members of the Executive Board.

4. GENERAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The General Board of Directors shall be composed of members of the Executive Board and members of the Commission. Unless otherwise specified, when the term “Board” is used in these by-laws, it refers to the General Board.

ARTICLE III MEETINGS

1. EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING. Following the AGM, the Executive Board will meet at the same time as the next regularly scheduled Board meeting for the purpose of electing new members of the Commission from nominations made at the AGM and from the floor. The Executive Board will also meet at other times set by the President to conduct the immediate business and affairs of the Association. The agenda for these meetings shall be determined by President. Robert’s Rules of Order will guide Executive Board proceedings.
2. GENERAL BOARD OF DIRECTOR MEETINGS. The General Board will meet at various times determined by the President to conduct General Board business. The agenda for those meetings shall be determined by the president. Robert’s Rules of Order will guide Board proceedings.
3. BOARD MEETINGS. Regular meetings of either the Executive or General Board will be held regularly, and as determined by the President.
4. SPECIAL MEETINGS. A special meeting of either the Executive Board or the General Board may be called either by the President or by a majority of the Executive Board. Once called, a special meeting should be held within three (3) days, weekends excluded. No notice of a special meeting shall be required other than an oral or electronic notice to all Board Members at least 24 hours prior to the meeting. A special meeting may only be called to discuss a specific agenda item, and that agenda item must be disclosed to all Board members (either Executive or General) at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting.
5. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING. Annual General Meeting, (AGM), shall be held in October or November of each year at a time set by the Board. The AGM shall be open to the public. Public notification shall be made at least fifteen (15) days prior to the AGM. The primary purpose of the Annual General Meeting shall be the election of the Executive Board and to nominate others to serve on the Commission. The agenda of the AGM shall consist of a) Presidents Report, b) Treasurers Report, c) Election of Executive Officers & Nomination of Commissioners, d) general discussion from the floor, e) Vote on Amendments or changes to the constitution (if any), f) adjournment. Robert’s Rule of Order will guide the proceedings of the AGM.

ARTICLE IV VOTING

1. EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETINGS. Each Executive Board Member shall have one vote, with the exception of the President, whose vote will be exercised only to break a tie vote. A quorum at these meetings shall be one half of the members of the Executive Board plus one. The only exception to “one member, one vote” is in the case of more than one member of the same household holding a position on the Board. In that circumstance (when one more member of the same household a position on the Board), those members will execute one collective vote.
2. GENERAL BOARD OF DIRECTOR MEETINGS. Each member of the General Board shall have one vote, with the exception of the President, whose vote will be exercised only to break a tie vote. A quorum at these meetings shall be one half of the members of the Board plus one. The only exception to “one member, one vote” is in the case of more than one member of the same household holding a position on the Board. In that circumstance (when one more member of the same household a position on the Board), those members will execute one collective vote.

3. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING. Each member of the Board and each “Coach of Record” for any recreational team registered with the Association during the current calendar year shall have one vote at that year’s AGM, with the exception of the president, whose vote will be exercised only to break a tie vote. A quorum shall be ten voting members. A “Coach of Record” includes any head coach whose name appears as “head coach” on a team roster issued by the ASA (Hub City Soccer). A “recreational team” is any HCSC team in which there is no financial compensation paid to the coach. The only exception to “one member, one vote” is in the case of more than one member of the same household carrying a vote at the AGM. In that circumstance (when one more member of the same household carries a vote), those members will execute one collective vote.
4. CONFLICT OF INTEREST. Determination. A BOD member shall be considered to have a conflict of interest if the member (1) has existing or potential financial or other interests that impair or appear to impair the member’s independent, unbiased judgment in the discharge of the member’s responsibilities to the Association; or (2) is aware that a member of the member’s immediate family has financial or other interests that would impair or appear to impair the member’s independent judgment in the discharge of the member’s responsibilities to the Association. Immediate family generally includes spouse, parent, sibling, child, or any other relative residing in the same household as the BOD member. Disclosure. All Members shall disclose to the Board any possible conflict of interest at the earliest practical time. Further, in the event of a conflict, the member shall generally be absent from discussions of, and must abstain from voting on, such matters under consideration by the Board or its committees. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect that a disclosure was made and that the BOD member with a conflict or possible conflict abstained from voting. Any member who is uncertain as to whether a conflict of interest exists in any matter may request that the Board or committee resolve the question in the member’s absence by majority vote. The Board may also adopt policies that more clearly set forth any requirements regarding disclosure and actions relating to conflicts of interest.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

1. ELECTION OF OFFICERS AT THE AGM.
 - a). Executive Board: All members of the Executive Board, except the Referee Administrator, will be elected by the AGM as provided herein.
